The Mahaska County Board of Supervisors met in Special Session at 7:00 p.m. in the meeting room of the George Daily Auditorium. This was a joint meeting with the Oskaloosa Community School Board and the Oskaloosa City Council.

Present were the following county supervisors: Chairman – Henry W. VanWeelden; Vice-chairman- Greg Gordy; member – Lawrence Rouw; Jerome Nusbaum, Mahaska County Engineer; Brandt Smith, Mahaska County Secondary Road Department Mayor David Dixon; City Council members: Dave Krutzfeldt, Eric Palmer, Jimmy Carter, Keith E. Garrett, City Manager – Don Sandor; Oskaloosa School Board members: Dave Dickinson, Anne Whitis, Laurie Palmer, Don Patterson; Brian Kieffer; Bruce Smith; School Board Secretary – Jake Roberts; Superintendent – Carolyn McGaughey; Eric Coop, Oskaloosa Herald; Scott Dailey, KBOE Radio; Members of the Public – Edith Bridges, Ray Bridges, J.D. Fleener, Wayne DeBruin; Daryl Petty; Members of the Recreation Foundation – Bob Nielsen; Marie Ware, Joe Crookham; Kay Swanson, Mahaska County Auditor.

Supervisor chair Henry W. VanWeelden called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m.

The meeting was called to discuss the traffic on 220th Street and Laveen from Highway 63 North. The supervisors have received complaints of the increase in traffic since the Elementary School has been built in that area on the northwest part of Oskaloosa.

The three boards decided that each board would appoint representatives to a committee to study the matter.

Meeting adjourned.

Henry W. VanWeelden, Chairman
Mahaska County Board of Supervisors
