

LAST MINUTE CONCERNS OF PEOPLE WHO GO TO THE POLLS ON ELECTION DAY:

What if I go to the polls and they tell me I can't vote because I requested an absentee ballot?

If you have your unvoted ballot, you can surrender it at the polls and vote in the usual manner. If you do not have your unvoted absentee ballot, you can vote a provisional ballot, which will be put into an envelope. On Wednesday, November 4th, the Special Precinct Board will consider provisional ballots.

What do I do if I have moved since the last time I voted?

If you still live in the county where you were last registered to vote, go to the polling site for your new address. Take a current picture identification with your current address with you. You will be asked to complete a voter registration form with your new address, and you can vote in the usual manner. If your ID is not current, call the Auditor's office (641)673-7148 for additional instructions.

What if I don't have my voter registration card any more?

If you are registered at the correct precinct, you do not need your voter registration card to vote. If you are asked for identification, show your current driver's license or other picture identification.

What if I go to the polls and they tell me I am at the wrong precinct?

You will be directed to the correct precinct and you can vote there.

What if I go to the polls and they tell me I am not registered to vote?

You can register to vote at the polls on Election Day. You will be required to show proof of residency and proof of identity. The best form of ID is a valid Iowa driver's license with your current address. If your Iowa driver's license has an old address on it, please contact the Auditor's office (641) 673-7148 for additional requirements.

Can another voter attest for me if I do not have proof of residence or identity?

If you do not have proof of residence and identity, a registered voter in the your precinct may attest to the fact that you are who you say you are and that you live in the precinct you say you live in.

If you have a registered voter in the precinct attest to your residence and identity, you will both be required to sign an oath. Falsely attesting or being attested for is a class "D" felony.

If you do not have proof of residence or identity and do not have anyone who can attest to your residence and identity, you will be allowed to vote a provisional ballot. You will have until Noon, Wednesday, November 4th, to present the proper ID information in the Auditor's Office. The special precinct board will meet Wednesday, November 4th, to consider provisional ballots.
